To One and All

As I approach my final days as pastor of St. Anselm Parish my thoughts are thoughts of gratitude and joy.

I am so thankful for the effort, insights, cooperation and friendship of our Parish Core Staff. They have made ministry a rich and exciting experience. I am also grateful to all the lay employees of the parish plant and rectory for their faithful and willing efforts in caring for our parish and the priests.

To the leaders of our education programs, our youth programs, parish organizations and pastoral councils together with the teachers in St. Anselm Catholic School and Religious Education programs and all their hard working committee members and associates I say you deserve so much credit for the wonderful things that have made St. Anselm such a great parish.

Finally, I think of the People of God - our parishioners and friends - who have been such an inspiration and support to me on this journey of faith.

Thank you one and all. It's been a wonderful and grace filled experience being your pastor for these past 19 years. God bless you all. Be assured of my prayers for the future. Please remember me in your prayers. Again many thanks.

Love, Msgr. Michael Phillips
